County School Board To Sell 3 Buildings

First steps toward sale of the vacated Leetown, Catahoula and Sellers Schools are expected at the county board of education at its recessed meeting Monday morning, along with interviews of several prospects for teaching positions in the system.

Countians Face Jury On Bootleg Charges

A broken leg was suffered by a U. S. Treasury Department agent during a moonshine raid in Lakeshore about 7:15 p.m. Thursday when he was trapped beneath the wheels of a tractor loaded with bootleg whiskey.

Arrested during the raid were Monroe Garcia, 40, Lakeshore, Sidney LaFontaine, 69, and his son, Clifton Owen LaFontaine, 35, both of Bay St. Louis. All three made bond and waived a preliminary hearing yesterday before U. S. Commissioner Miss Irene Herbert in Biloxi and are scheduled to appear before the next federal grand jury in June.

In an earlier raid in Lincoln County two other Hancock County residents were arrested, Shanks

Hospital Meet Set With Price

A special meeting of the Hancock General Hospital board of trustees has been called for Monday night to discuss with Sheriff Gerald V. Price the confusion arising over removal of a Negro patient who was involved in a traffic offense.

Thomas O. Logue, hospital administrator, said the meeting probably will take place at 6:30 p.m. The meeting resulted from a 5-2 vote by the board at its regular May session advising the sheriff that it would not "condone or acquiesce" removal of patients by the sheriff or his deputies without consent of the patient's physician and the administrator.

torney, to prepare the necessary resolutions to advertise the Leetown and Catahoula buildings for sale, since apparently no community use can be made of them. Beat 3 Trustee Lugs Necaise asked that Sellers be included as no committee there has come forward with plans.

On the perennially ticklish question of permitting time at school for instruction in catechism by a religious faith, Phillips advised the board that every decision by the Supreme Court of the United States held that no sectarian instruction is permitted in a school period. He offered his findings after the Rev. Celestine Pfannenstiel of the Church of the Annunciation at Kiln appeared at an earlier session asking that Catholic and non-Catholic pastors have an opportunity once a week to work with the children of their faiths at Hancock North Central School.

Catechism might be taught if the child has free time during the school day and there is a place for the class, he continued, but this can only be utilized with permission of the parents. He also ruled out holding school buses later in the afternoon so pupils might have religious instruction before going home in the highly rural area.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, vice chairman, cited the accrediting report on North Central which shows facilities overcrowded in two instances, two teachers having overloaded classes with 171 and 172, against the required teaching load. The state report also noted the librarian has 16 1/2 quarter hours in library science and is in the library three periods a day while the person should be there all day when the enrollment reaches 200 pupils.

The accrediting and staff vacancy discussion brought up consideration of teachers' certificates, and Powell recalled that R. E. Webb, North Central superintendent, last summer had required all teachers not qualified to take summer work. The board agreed that the same policy should prevail this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvey Necaise were rehired at the same salary as janitors at North Central with

Judgment Goes To Contractors

Circuit Judge Leslie B. Grant awarded judgment of $13,913.16 to Jehle Brothers Inc. of Montgomery, Ala., Tuesday as the result of a suit tried last Tuesday and Wednesday involving the Winn-Dixie building on Hancock Avenue near U. S. 90.

Judgment was against Johness Realty Co. Inc., owners of the property. Co-defendants Winn-Dixie of Louisiana, Inc., and Equitable Life Insurance Society, holders of a mortgage on the property, were found not liable and were discharged.

Suit was for $17,569.66 alleged to be still due on the contract price. Defendants filed a counterclaim alleging defects in the building that would cost $38,643 to remedy. Judge Grant awarded $4,585 "set-off" against the amount sued for to cover the defects. A motion for a new trial had not been ruled on Thursday.

Jaycees Elect New Officers

Democrats Seek Poll Book Purge

The county Democratic Executive Committee voted unanimously to request a purge of the official poll books before the June 7 primary election after member Robert Smith complained that in a recent vote on a bond issue in his beat a number of persons produced the necessary poll receipts but were not qualified on the books. The committee met in a two-hour organizational session Wednesday morning.

Joseph V. Colson, Waveland, was elected permanent chairman and Leo Seal Jr. secretary. Serving his second term as chairman, Colson briefed members on their duties, such as naming election managers and canvassing returns after each election.

Beat 4 member Randolph Seal announced he was forced to resign "because of things beyond my control." He recommended C. R. Knowlton to replace him which was approved by the committee.

Colson said he approved of open meetings and would welcome suggestions from anyone. Another meeting was set for Tuesday when election managers for the June 7 primary will be selected and the secretary authorized to have ballots printed. Voters will cast their ballots for a U. S. Senator, Supreme Court Judge and an amendment to the state constitution, the Right to Work Bill. Candidates for Senator are the incumbent, James O. Eastland and Once Blakeney; for judge, R. Onley Arrington, incumbent, and Lamsford Casey.

Colson pointed out that while the pay for election managers had been doubled by the legislature during their last session,

Mrs. Delph Resigns From Red Cross Post

Mrs. Octave Delph has tendered her resignation as executive secretary for the Hancock County chapter, American Red Cross, it was disclosed this week. She will terminate her duties June 1 to devote full time to family affairs.

A permanent successor has not yet been named but Mrs. L. H. Raymond will have charge of the office for the summer months.

Stanislaus Students Beach, Water Injured in Mishap

Two St. Stanislaus students from Pass Christian were seriously injured late Sunday afternoon when their car was struck by the Louisville and Nashville Crescent Limited en route to New Orleans at the Cedar Avenue crossing in Pass Christian. Both were taken to Memorial Hospital at Gulfport.

Richard Witman, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Witman, suffered a broken leg, multiple contusions and abrasions. His condition was reported Thursday to be improved but it could not be learned how serious the leg injury would be. His father is a

Jaycees Elect New Officers

The Bay St. Louis Jaycees may succeed himself. Offices to be filled are president, first vice president, second vice president, secretary, treasurer, state director, and three members of the board of directors. A hospital tour will follow.

26-Man Delegation Elected by Demos

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE - Joseph V. Colson, chairman of the county Democratic executive committee, briefs members on their duties at a meeting in the county courtroom Wednesday morning.

STAND FOR REPRESENTATION - County Democratic caucus delegate Welton Lader of Fenton endorses better county representation for the state convention at Monday's meeting. With backs to camera are county executive committee secretary Leo Seal Jr., sitting, and president Joe Colson, standing.

Stanislaus Students Beach, Water Bills Signed By Governor

Among the bills recently signed into law by Gov. Ross Barnett were H 923, which authorizes Hancock County to spend $5,000 for removing debris along the beach, and H 992 permitting Bay St. Louis to provide further security for the issuance of water bonds.

At its last meeting, Waveland Town Council passed an ordinance designed to assist the county in keeping the beach front clear. The new law requires a building permit for pier construction and requires the owner to remove all piling or posts if the pier is demolished.

Bay St. Louis has been waiting to see if the county would receive the authorization before taking any action and so far has taken none, according to Commissioner Cyril Glover.

Waveland Paces Growth

The preliminary figures sent by Thomas F. Richardson, regional director, to R. G. Hubbard Jr., president of the county board of supervisors, listed the county at 13,932, Bay St. Louis at 5,020 and Waveland at 1,681. Ten years ago they were 11,891 for Hancock, 4,621 for the Bay and 793 for Waveland.

"These figures are believed to be substantially correct but are subject to revision after the returns for non-residents are credited to the proper locality and other routine checks have been made," Richardson wrote Hubbard. "Although significant revision is unlikely, minor revisions may possibly occur after careful examination of the returns."

He noted that official announcement of the population will be made at a later date by the director of the Bureau of the Census.

Uninformed sources anticipated the greatest percentage of increase in the state to come in Jackson County which is likely to gain over 50 per cent from 1950 figures. Gulfport and Waveland County which ran about 35,000 in 1950 has already passed the 120,000 mark and is likely to go beyond 35,000.

As a whole, the 6th Congressional District in which Hancock County is located has shown a remarkable increase in the last 10 years. The '50 census gave it 385,000 and the county already has exceeded 440,000.

Indications are that Jackson will have trouble reaching the 150,000 threshold for and Meridian is not likely to reach its goal of 50,000.

Colson Named Officer

Delegates to Monday's county Democratic convention elected 26 delegates to cast Hancock County's two votes in the district and state party conventions next month.

Each delegate will have approximately .08 of a vote at the 6th Congressional District convention June 2 in Hattiesburg and at the state convention June 30 in Hattiesburg. Delegates were instructed to cooperate with Gov. Ross Barnett 100 per cent on resolution introduced by A. C. Mitchell and adopted by the county caucus.

County delegates also voted to back Bidwell Adam of Gulfport, present chairman of the state Democratic executive committee, for reelection to that post.

Joseph Colson of Waveland was elected to serve as chairman of the county executive committee, succeeding Joseph Benvenuti of Bay St. Louis, while Leo Seal Jr. of Bay St. Louis was elected to Colson's former position as secretary. Both served in similar positions as temporary officers of the county caucus and were nominated each time by John Egloff of Bay St. Louis.

Named to the executive committee on motions by Egloff and elected countywide on a motion by Sylvan Lader, seconded by John Jones were Beat 1: Julian (Pas) LeFrance, Eddie Martin and H. E. Davis sr.; Beat 2: Elvi Robertson, Robert Smith and Wilton Wheat; Beat 3: Hayward Lader, Gustelle (Buddy) Shyrou and Clinton Dedeaux; Beat 4: Randolph Seal, Jerry Mitchell and John Canan; and Beat 5: Colson, Seal and Frank B. Klein.

State and district delegate were approved on a motion by Fenton precinct delegate Welton Lader who nominated the five county supervisors, elected county officers and the elected Bay St. Louis and Waveland officials. Also approved as delegates were Colson, Dan Russell Jr., A. C. Mitchell and Egloff on a motion by Egloff.

Representatives were first approved excluding the Bay St. Louis and Waveland officials, but were added after Egloff moved to reopen nominations on a roll call vote of 29 to 15 with seven absent or abstaining. Egloff then asked that his nominations be

Sales Tax Hike Here Not Firm

Plans for the June 7 vote for a one-half cent increase in city sales tax are incomplete pending a report of William Johnson, consulting engineer in Jackson, on the estimated cost of the sewerage-water project, Commissioner Warren Traub said Thursday.

Council has committed itself to use the proceeds of the tax, if approved by the voters, toward the cost of the project and council will vote Monday, after receiving the figures from Johnson, whether to submit the sales tax to a vote, he said.

We're Growing

W. A. McDonald and Sons have been awarded a major franchise by Everette Moore, publisher of the Gulfport Herald, to operate a new newspaper in the area.

GOP Convention Is 1-Man Meet

Hancock County's Republican Party convention wound up as a one-man meeting when no delegates appeared at the Courthouse Saturday, County Chairman Wilson Wehre being the only representative of the party present at the scheduled 2 p.m. meeting.

Wehre said apparently no one appeared at the precinct voting places Saturday morning to elect delegates.

He said an announcement regarding the selection of a county executive committee to serve for the next four years would be forthcoming next week.

Chamber Revises Hour of Meeting

Meeting time of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce has been changed from 5:30 p.m. on the first Monday of each month to 7:30 p.m. in an effort to induce more members to attend. The change was unanimously approved by the directors and the next meeting is June 6.

A. G. Dantagan, president, noted that many members have been under the erroneous impression that the monthly meetings are only for directors.

Condolences Also

At this season it is customary to congratulate those graduating from our schools, grammar, high, college or professional. The Echo does sincerely congratulate them for presumably it indicates another milestone in their education and maturity.

It is equally customary to point out to these graduates that effort and perseverance bring the greater rewards in life. In general this is certainly true.

Sometimes these graduates are told of the problems that may lie ahead in their life. At the moment this should probably be the keynote of many speeches. While this country has probably been in greater danger militarily, Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's continuing blasts of yesterday taken with Communist China's vituperation certainly indicate the possibility of history's most disastrous war.

There are, however, other equally dangerous signs ahead. Too often we are inclined to vote on a what's-in-it-for-us basis or are too lazy to go to the polls. Large minority groups frequently dictate the election of a candidate to high office because they are vocal and to some extent controlled. Some labor unions and the NAACP fall into this category in many areas. Farmers and businessmen frequently vote for a candidate who promises to give them advantages irrespective of the candidate's other qualifications. Many other groups could be mentioned.

Selfishness, not Russia or China, is our greatest danger, and condolences as well as congratulations are due graduates.

One of the Bay barbers, Mr. Tony Piazza, is trying something new here. In an effort to spread his work more evenly through the week, he has announced an additional 25 cents charge for haircuts on Saturdays.

Other types of business, such as airlines and movies, have used similar programs successfully. This paper has no idea how it will work for a barber in a resort area, but it will be interesting to see.

The reported safe descent of Pilot Francis G. Powers from a plane shot down over Russia by a Russian rocket from a high altitude, and his continued possession of instruments and documents indicating he was an American spy leave one unanswered question in our mind. For whom was Mr. Powers really a spy? If for Russia, our military intelligence has a real internal problem, one more dangerous than the Summit blowup.

EMBARRASSING NEWS

We think that it is shameful when a group of men (grown up too) representing the people of this city, or for that matter any city, have to meet behind closed doors to discuss their and the people's business.

The excuse "personalities" is the one most often used to close a meeting to the public and press. This is usually for firing or reprimanding an employee. Word usually gets around after an "embarrassing session" about what happened. Not only that, but most people know the details ahead of time.

Wonder if it ever occurred to officials to more carefully check matters first before acting or hiring and embarrassing situations wouldn't occur so frequently.

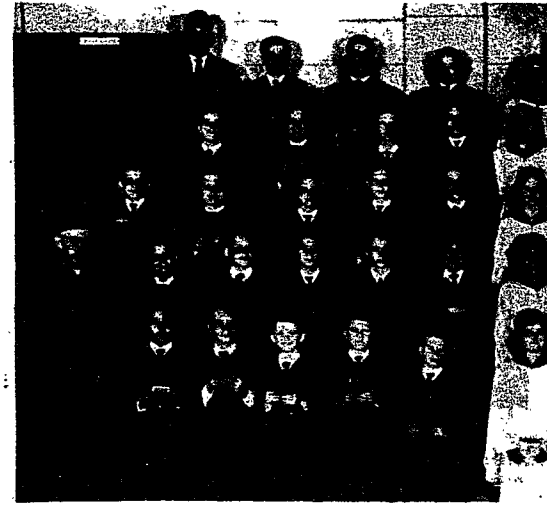

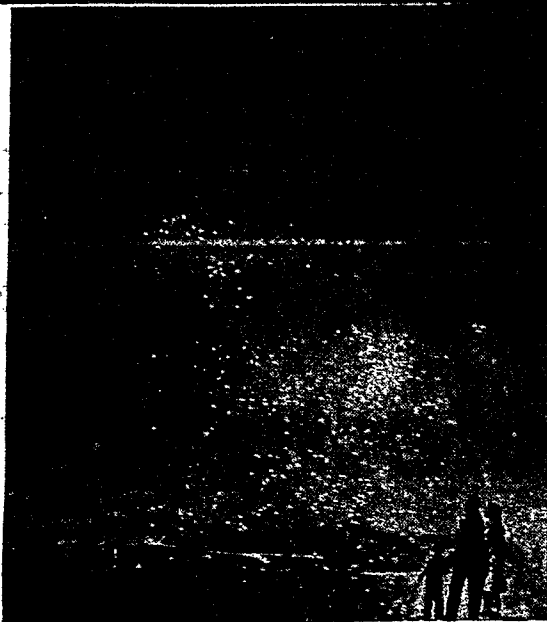

Well, we must say a closed meeting certainly adds to the pomp and circumstance of holding office.

Prayer To the Editor
Editor, Sea Coast Echo:
I would like to commend you for your editorial, "For the Public We," in the Sea Coast Echo of May 12, 1960.
Several years ago I made this same suggestion, and I am as ready today as I was then to cooperate to the fullest in such a plan, which would benefit us as well as the public.
May I suggest the Chamber of Commerce as intermediary for helping to arrange a schedule acceptable to all the churches concerned?

HOME GARDENS

How's that garden growing? Got it filled up yet? It can mean a lot of money to you.
Here are some things to do the rest of this month and in June to help insure a bigger payoff from that garden.

Prune and stake the first planting of tomatoes. This will help you get large, clean fruit. Plant tomato seed in hills now for a fall crop. Do not prune and stake the late tomato.

Stake your running beans when runners are 3 or 4 inches long. Some folks stake the beans at planting time.

Harvest Irish potatoes when tops are two-thirds dead; onions when tops die down.
Don't forget some extra plantings of corn and beans.

Here is a planting list for Movies for You

DESIGNER STYLED SWIM SUITS

Rep. Delos Burks of Pearl River County had called McCarty to note the statute already was on the books, Phillips said he was aware of that but wanted a local bill anyway as a safeguard but apparently the session was too far advanced to get it through. Meanwhile, he expressed intention of pursuing the matter.

Bus routes for the coming year, particularly as related to North Central were discussed at length. McCarty proposed a number of feeder lines and larger buses to handle the truck lines, expressing the view that four or five buses could be eliminated from long runs this way. Necaise questioned whether some of the rural roads are in condition to handle bigger buses.

Bills were tabled for Saturday's session for more careful review and Mrs. Estelle Depree, secretary to the superintendent, was authorized to attend the workshop for education secretaries in Jackson next month.

Bradley adds a number of deft style touches that makes the swim suit a delight to behold... Pictured are two slimming beauties of resilient lastex faille in a delightful color range.

Chapman Trackless Mallory

Back plagued Skipper Chapman, Bay-Waveland's entry in the western district Mallory Cup eliminations last week-end at New Orleans Yacht Club, who wound up in second place in the series but was eliminated from further competition.

Sunday, Chapman lost his race in the first round of the Mallory event and the race committee called off the race ruling that it was not the fault of the skipper. Sunday the race was run again and Chapman led most of the way. He was about 300 yards ahead, approaching the finish line when the boats encountered a dead calm.

When the wind picked up again the boat skippered by Buddy Fredricks, Southern Yacht Club's entry, happened to be in a position to get into the wind immediately and beat Chapman across the line by a few seconds. Fredricks won the series.

No races are scheduled this weekend at the local club, the next regatta being May 28-29.

Sideliners Present Awards to Athletes

College officials from Mississippi and Louisiana participated in the annual athletic awards program at St. Stanislaus College last Thursday night during the Sideliners athletic appreciation banquet.

Seal Distributes Cage Mementos at Hawk Last Assembly

Leo Seal Jr., Hancock Bank vice president, yesterday informally spoke to a North Central High School assembly. The occasion was the distribution by the bank of plastic coated pictures of the school's state championship basketball team to each high school student, faculty member and to parents of team members.

Seal commented that he was proud of the progress the school had made in its first full year, adding that the team's championship had given good publicity not only to the school but to the whole county. He told the students that to the best of his knowledge this was the first Hancock County athletic team to win a state championship, but that in the late 30s the Sellers' basketball team did, in non-tournament play, beat Sumrall High during that school's three-year reign as state champions. J. C. Harrell, principal of the high school division, was a member of that Sellers team.

Merritt, McDonald Champs

Dick Merritt and Mrs. John McDonald, both of Bay St. Louis, are the men's and women's champions respectively at Pass Christian Isles Golf Club.

Merritt, playing over 36 holes Saturday and Sunday, turned back the defending champion, Woody Waggoner of Pass Christian, 8 and 6. Merritt held a five up lead after the first 18 holes Saturday and while he had to play a semi-finals match in the men's tournament at Great Southern Country Club Sunday, he drove back to the Pass and disposed of Waggoner on the 12th hole that afternoon. At Great Southern, Merritt did not fare as well, dropping the match to Jim Waldrop.

In her finals match against Mrs. Powell Glass Jr., Mrs. McDonald birdied the first two holes and gained a six-up lead after six holes, winning 1 up.

The first flight finals in the men's tournament remains to be played between Roy Capehart and Dick Mestayer while in the second flight, Ken Waldman defeated Sidney Prague and Powell Glass Jr. defeated W. D. Johnston for third flight honors. Dr. Ed Gamard won the fourth flight over Dr. George Byrnes.

In the women's tournament, Catherine Purcher defeated Mrs. D. Hendrix in the first flight; Mrs. John Griffin won by default over Mrs. Edward Perry in the second flight and Maude Frye won the second flight consolation from Mrs. Walter Gex.

The nine-hole third flight went to Mrs. Wilbur Johnston who defeated Julia Frye and the consolation in that flight went to Mrs. Howard Adams who posted a low net for 18 holes over Mrs. Joe Airey and Mrs. Guy Bufkin.

Prizes are to be awarded later.

A mixed two-ball foursome is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday at the Pass Christian Isles club with members to sign up in advance. Husbands and wives may not play together, according to Pro Dick Tarleton.

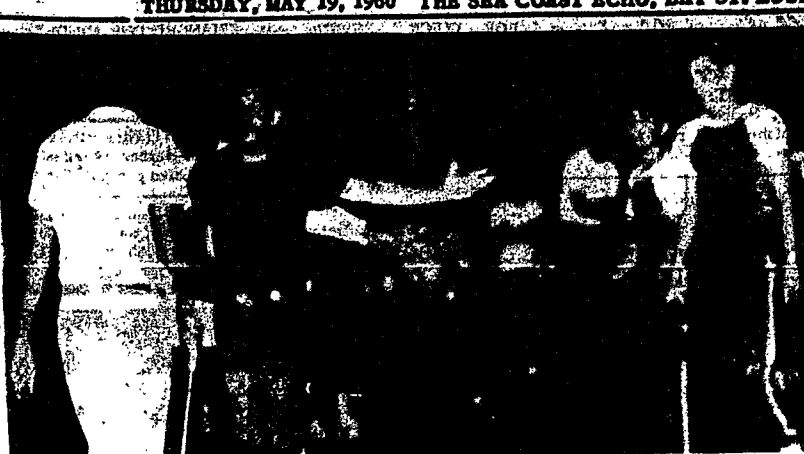

Merritt, W. P. McCutcheon, J. McDonald, Frank Stevens and daughter, Leslie, J. W. Harper and R. R. Johnson Jr., both of Gulfport.

Trapani and Stieffel Tied for League Lead

Trapani and Stieffel were tied for the top slot in Bay St. Louis Softball League play after Monday night's games. Trapani winning the opener from KC 14-4 and Stieffel edging Youth Center 9-7 in the nightcap. A capacity crowd filled the new stands and overflowed onto the field.

A rally by Youth Center in the fifth inning shook up Stieffel's rooters and the lads appeared on the way to victory after scoring six runs but their fire was finally squelched one short of a tie.

First man up in the fifth was Tillford who singled; next was Stephens who was safe on an error; Caldwell came through with a two-bagger; Godwin, Miller, Peterson and Taylor each got singles but the mightiest swat of all was a strong three-bagger by Chevis that might have been stretched into a homer.

Pitcher Caldwell held Stieffel to one hit and no runs in the bottom of the fifth and Youth Center came back in the sixth to pick up where they left off. The first three men singled, loading the bases but the side was retired after three force-outs ending the scoring for Youth Center.

Score by innings:
Youth Center 010 060 0 - 7
Stieffel 113 301 x - 9
Trapani's pitcher John Lader had a one-hitter until the last inning when the KC team

When Dedaux closed in 1959, she followed her pupils to Hancock North Central School, still teaching the first grade.

Mrs. Niolet pursued her college education at the University of Mississippi and at Mississippi Southern College.

She will join her husband in retirement at their home in the Dedaux community, where they are much loved and respected. The faculty of Hancock North Central School presented her with an electric coffeemaker at their last meeting of the year, today.

MRS. NIOLET

In case you think you might be stung

Some people seem to feel that prescriptions are outrageously priced. The truth of the matter is this: Last year the average American bought about 3 prescriptions for a total cost of around $7.50. An average of less than $3.00 per prescription. Sure, some drugs cost a lot. So do television tubes—for the same reason. They're expensive to manufacture. New and improved production methods, however, bring prices down. Penicillin, for example, costs only a small fraction of what it did when it first came out. Your pharmacist has a professional knowledge of drugs and can tell you this. They are fairly priced. You get what you pay for. We are always pleased to serve you.

Security and Solvency

There's a lot of talk about security of one kind and another today but little is ever said on the subject of solvency. Yet, no person and no people can long endure insolvent.

With a national debt of $290 billion, more or less, and other debts - public and private - bringing the titanic total to $750 billion or more, one of the most momentous problems facing the American people is to find ways and means to stay solvent.

If the average individual were as careless with his money as is his government, if he refused to pay his debts, to live within his income, and put by nothing for the future, we would soon suffer national bankruptcy. Only the frugality of millions of individual citizens now keeps body and soul together.

And if government refuses to pay its debts and economize - if it keeps on spending more and more - piling up its obligations on the backs of our children, it takes no prophet to foresee the consequences, to foretell a future of financial catastrophe and insecurity. Our congress has not repealed the law of cause and effect.

No man and no government that squanders its substance can long endure. No people that spends beyond its means will prosper permanently. Easy credit is the way to hard times.

So why not save before we spend, for a change? As a government, why not live within our means, balance our budget, and begin reducing the national debt? Pay as we go? Why not guarantee the security of ourselves and our children by practicing what we preach?

The solvency of the nation, the security of its people, the happiness and prosperity of us all depend upon the stability of the American dollar. We cannot go in the direction we have been moving, indefinitely, and be sure that our children will inherit the freedom and security enjoyed by their fathers.

Saving is the key to solvency and solvency the key to security.

Misses Ladner, Bourgeois Honored at Awards Court

A colorful climax to a successful year of Girl Scouting in the Bay St. Louis Neighborhood took place last Thursday evening when the annual spring court of awards was held at St. Joseph gym.

The event, well attended by uniformed Brownies, Intermediates, Senior Marines and their parents and friends, got under way with an impressive flag ceremony by Troop 120. Following the pledge of allegiance, the assembly joined in the singing of America accompanied by Miss Jamie Ellison, pianist.

Mrs. J. W. Clark, neighborhood chairman, welcomed the guests and recognized the leaders and other adults who have been active in scouting during the year. Entertainment for the evening was provided by Troop 77 in a square dance and a skit by Brownie Troop 113.

Mrs. Willis Rhodes presented campership awards to Mary Tony Ladner and Agnes Bourgeois for outstanding work in the cookie sale.

Following an explanation of the meaning of the various ranks, badges and other awards by Mrs. C. C. McDonald, the leaders of the various troops made presentations to their girls. Following the retiring of the colors, the meeting was closed with a friendship circle and the singing of Taps by the scouts.

Registration for Day Camp opened this week, according to Mrs. J. J. Ansley, registrar. Camp will be held during the week of June 27 at a site midway between Bay St. Louis and Poycune. Transportation will be available from Bay High each day.

Campers are reminded of the health certificate and typhoid immunization requirements. Mrs. Ansley will accept registrations on a first-come first-served basis at her home on North Beach any afternoon this week after 3 p.m.

The next meeting of the Gulf Pines Council will be held in Hattiesburg on Tuesday, May 24.

BEAUTY TIPS by Mercedes Spahr

BE KIND TO YOUR FEET. Modern living demands a good deal of walking—whether you're a homemaker or a career woman, whether you're just touching the twenties, or greeting your fourth grandchild! And I know I don't have to tell you: When your feet feel overtired, your face reflects the strain. However, there are many small ways in which you can comfort your feet. First and foremost, do choose the right shoe for the occasion. Don't go on an all-day shopping trip in your dancing shoes, even if your ankles look better in high heels. (By the end of the day those ankles will be puffy — and that's never a pretty look!). A little trick to make puffy ankles go back to normal is to rest them for awhile at a high angle, at least six to eight inches higher than your head. Try soaking them first in lukewarm water, then assume that relaxing position for a full fifteen minutes. (To take away the strain lines your tired feet put into your face, use the same few minutes to put cotton pads, soaked in cool water, over your eyes.)

ANOTHER GOOD TRICK for swollen ankles is this: First, a few moments in the hottest water you can stand. Then a quick rinse with ice water. Repeat the process at least three times. You'll smile with relief, and stop away feeling younger. And whatever else you do for your feet, DON'T be a "bathroom surgeon." If you have corns and calluses, consult a foot doctor. Clip your nails the way he suggests: straight across, not too short. Wash feet twice a day and dry thoroughly. If you use foot powder, don't let it cake between the toes. (This can cause infection.)

FINAL HINT: A new lotion can take your mind off your feet, too. You'll love it only as you leave. MERCEDES' BEAUTY SALON, FOREST AVE., CLERMONT HARBOR, HO 7-5202.

FROM UNDER THE DRYER: Marriage is a lot like a hot bath. When you're in it awhile, it's apt to cool off.
